EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Associated Health Postdoctoral HSR&D Fellowship Program. The Postdoctoral Research Fellowship at the VA HSR&D Center for the Study of Healthcare Innovation, Implementation & Policy welcomes applications from individuals who have recently completed a doctoral degree in such health-related disciplines as public health (epidemiology, health services, biostatistics), psychology, organizational sociology, health economics, health administration, nursing, pharmacy, or other related fields. Fellows typically begin any time between July 1st and September 30th of each year. Please note that Fellows must be United States citizens and must have completed their doctoral degree before beginning the fellowship. Open until filled.

Senior Researcher \(Demographer\), Boston Redevelopment Authority. The Demographer will help plan, design and develop strategy and methodology of demographic research; may originate study concept or develop topic in response to request from Director. Draft, revise and prepare reports which monitor, assess, discuss and forecast Boston's population. Discuss report findings and conclusions with Director of Research or other staff as appropriate. Open until filled.

Postdoctoral Associate, American University Center on Health, Risk and Society \(CHRS\). The Department of Sociology and the Center on Health, Risk and Society (CHRS) in the College of Arts and Sciences at American University invite applications for a Postdoctoral Associate. The appointment is a 2 year term position. The postdoctoral associate will be part of the department and Center's emphasis on the social dimensions of health and should build on at least one of our current strengths at CHRS. Of particular interest are candidates whose research speaks to processes of displacement and disruption, including neighborhood change/"gentrification," and/or incarceration/re-entry and policing, and / or immigration/ deportation. Open until filled.

Assistant or Associate Professor of Health Policy or Health Services Research, Rutgers University. The Institute for Health, Health Care Policy and Aging Research; Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track assistant or associate professor in health policy or health services research. The successful candidate will be appointed as a core member of the Institute for Health with a joint appointment in an academic department appropriate for the candidate's discipline or profession. Of special interest are candidates whose work and training would make them suitable for appointment within a unit of Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences, including its schools of medicine, nursing, pharmacy, or public health. Open until filled.

Human Services Research Analyst, Mathematica Policy Research. Most research analysts conduct original and secondary policy research in multiple areas. Mathematica conducts evaluations on a broad range of topics, such as the Early Head Start program; charter school programs; teacher compensation and evaluation; responsible fatherhood programs; initiatives for youth at risk of homelessness; the Workforce Investment Act; and the impact and distributional effects of changes in SNAP, school lunches, WIC, TANF, and other social policies. Analysts may perform secondary research, including systematic reviews of existing research in education, family support, labor, early childhood, international development, and other areas. Some analysts provide technical assistance on evaluation design issues to other organizations conducting research. Open until filled.

Demographers on Sabbatical \(DOS\) Program, University of Texas at Austin, Population Research Center \(PRC\).

The PRC has developed a new program, Demographers on Sabbatical (DOS), which will provide support to prominent population scientists wishing to spend their sabbatical semester/year at the center. The DOS program starts in Fall 2015, with support available for two positions. Scholars will have the option of spending one or two semesters on campus. Applicants should have salary and fringe support from their home institution. The PRC/College of Liberal Arts will provide a $10,000 honorarium, travel for one round trip flight, office space in the PRC, and staff/computing support from the PRC. Open until filled.

PhD students, Postdocs, Research Scientists, Laboratory of Fertility and Well-being, Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research.

The newly established Laboratory of Fertility and Well-being is recruiting highly qualified scientists at all levels from tenured Research Scientist to PhD Student. Successful candidates will have strong quantitative skills with experience in applied data analysis. Candidates from the fields of demography, economics, statistics, sociology, epidemiology/public health or related disciplines will be considered. Open until filled.

Service Fellowship in Biostatistics and Epidemiology, Office of Analysis and Epidemiology, CDC. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's National Center for Health Statistics (NCHS) in Hyattsville, Maryland, is seeking a Service Fellow in epidemiology or biostatistics to work in its Office of Analysis and Epidemiology (OAE). The Service Fellow will work closely as part of a team of HPSB analysts responsible for collecting, analyzing, and presenting data for national health-promotion and disease-prevention initiatives, primarily Healthy People 2020 and the National Prevention Strategy. Major duties will include: synthesizing, analyzing, and verifying data; examining trends and disparities in national health objectives over time and across sociodemographic groups; preparing data charts summarizing the status of objectives for departmental reports and meetings; presenting original research papers or posters at professional meetings; and representing NCHS at Healthy People 2020 Workgroup meetings and conferences. Deadline: February 13, 2015.

Chief Economist, SANDAG. SANDAG (San Diego Forward) influences local land use and economic policies through regional transportation investments in transit, highways, bike infrastructure, freight corridors, transportation demand management, transportation system management, and supporting programs, and through financial incentives. The Chief Economist position is ideal for a highly regarded and well-recognized economics professional with demonstrated experience providing strategic input, leadership, and expert technical advice for economic and fiscal issues related to long-range regional plans and programs including capital project development. Deadline: February 20, 2015.

RAND Postdoctoral Training Program in the Study of Aging. The RAND Postdoctoral Training Program in the Study of Aging enables outstanding junior scholars in demographic and aging research to sharpen their analytic skills, learn to communicate research results effectively, and advance their research agenda. Housed within RAND Labor and Population, the program blends formal and informal training and extensive collaboration with distinguished researchers in a variety of disciplines. Fellowships are for one year, renewable for a second. Each fellow receives a competitive annual stipend, travel stipend and health insurance. Deadline: February 20, 2015.

Cornell University

CORNELL POPULATION CENTER

Open-Rank Professor of Data Science, Departments of Computer Science, Sociology and Economics, Queens College. Queens College seeks an established or emerging researcher (Job # 10668) in the area of data science with significant research experience in applying and developing data science to address problems arising in the fields of population, demography, economics, linguistics, sociology, or other areas. An established research agenda with substantial outside funding support or a potential for such funding is highly desirable. Competitive emerging researchers will demonstrate a clear research agenda and high potential for career growth. The successful applicant will be placed in the appropriate department by mutual agreement. This position is part of the CUNY-wide cyber infrastructure initiative. Deadline: March 6, 2015.

Postdoctoral Research Associate, Washington State University. The Postdoctoral Research Associate (Social Scientist) will work as part of the project team, specifically the Technology Adoption Working Group headed by Dr. Jessica Goldberger (Rural Sociologist) in the Department of Crop and Soil Sciences (<http://css.wsu.edu>) in the College of Agricultural, Human, and Natural Resource Sciences (<http://cahnrs.wsu.edu>). This work is part of a large, multi-institutional, multi-disciplinary project funded by the U.S. department of Agriculture's Specialty Crop Research Initiative (SCRI). The position is a temporary, 12 month, full-time position with the ability to renew annually, pending funding and successful review and progress. Deadline: March 20, 2015.

Open Rank Professor of Economics, Purdue University. The Department of Economics invites applications for at least one tenure-track or tenured position. Candidates at all ranks (Assistant, Associate and Full Professor) will be considered; appointments will begin August, 2015. The Department is seeking applications from exceptional candidates in all fields; candidates in the areas of Industrial Organization, Health, Education, Labor and Public Economics are particularly encouraged to apply. Candidates are expected to conduct policy-relevant research, to supervise Ph.D. dissertation research and to teach at the graduate and undergraduate levels. The positions require a Ph.D. in economics or closely related field. Deadline: March 31, 2015.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to PhD students in all social science graduate fields. Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student's special committee is a CPC affiliate. Students interested in signing up for the Demography minor should contact Lindy Williams or Geysa Smiljanic.

CPC Graduate Student Demography/Population Reading Group. For each meeting, a participant will serve as the leader, providing 2 or 3 articles and/or chapters to read related to their topic of interest. This group will facilitate student exposure to a breadth of literature across all of population studies and also develop some cross-disciplinary links. If you are interested in participating, please just send your name, department, and general area of interest/specialty to Christopher Gronberg.

2015 Call for Nominations: Sociology of Population Student Paper Award. Deadline: February 15, 2015.

Call for Papers: 7th Annual Cornell Sociology Research Symposium. The Sociology Graduate Student Association is holding its spring Sociology "mini-conference" for graduate student works-in-progress. All Cornell PhD students pursuing work of a sociological nature—regardless of department or field—are encouraged to present. Deadline: February 15, 2015.
