EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Postdoctoral Research Fellow/Research Fellow, Australian Research Council Centre of Excellence for Children and Families over the Life Course. The Life Course Centre seeks to appoint suitably qualified academic research staff (Job #3023456) to undertake research, training, and administrative duties associated with the Centre's research programs. The appointee will work closely with Professor Janeen Baxter, Director of the Centre, primarily in research relating to family dynamics and disadvantage. Work programs will comprise 80% duties for the Life Course Centre and 20% duties for ISSR. The latter may include participation in ISSR research projects, including contract research for government, preparing and presenting training programs and other professional duties relating to the operation and governance of ISSR. Open until filled.

Cornell University

Interdisciplinary Postdoctoral Fellowships, University of Pennsylvania. The University of Pennsylvania has 12-month post-doctoral research fellowships available with lead faculty in vibrant new research centers and adjoining labs [July 1, 2015-June 30, 2016]. The fellowships are supported through the: CDC-funded Penn Injury Science Center; Penn Urban Health Lab (www.urbanhealthlab.org); and Penn Space-Time Epidemiology Group (www.spacetimeepi.net). Post-doctoral fellows are expected to collaborate on research publications and grant submissions with faculty directors in epidemiology, nursing and criminology. There will be opportunities to collaborate with scientists across the university in the areas of public health, city planning, social science, geography, medicine and nursing, depending on individual interests. Contact Therese S. Richmond, PhD for information.

Demographers on Sabbatical \(DOS\) Program, University of Texas at Austin, Population Research Center \(PRC\).

The PRC has developed a new program, Demographers on Sabbatical (DOS), which will provide support to prominent population scientists wishing to spend their sabbatical semester/year at the center. The DOS program starts in Fall 2015, with support available for two positions. Scholars will have the option of spending one or two semesters on campus. Applicants should have salary and fringe support from their home institution. The PRC/College of Liberal Arts will provide a $10,000 honorarium, travel for one round trip flight, office space in the PRC, and staff/computing support from the PRC. Open until filled.

PhD students, Postdocs, Research Scientists, Laboratory of Fertility and Well-being, Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research.

The newly established Laboratory of Fertility and Well-being is recruiting highly qualified scientists at all levels from tenured Research Scientist to PhD Student. Successful candidates will have strong quantitative skills with experience in applied data analysis. Candidates from the fields of demography, economics, statistics, sociology, epidemiology/public health or related disciplines will be considered. Open until filled.

Postdoctoral position in Sociology, Stockholm University.

Postdoctoral position in Sociology, with an emphasis on Level of Living Research, at the Swedish Institute for Social Research. Reference number SU FV-0226-15. Applicants must hold a doctoral degree in sociology or a closely related discipline or a comparable foreign degree. Deadline for applications: March 2, 2015.

Postdoctoral Project Manager.

The CDC Foundation announces two post-doctoral employment opportunities for individuals with high-level experience in project management, data and surveillance systems, quantitative methods, program implementation, and fidelity monitoring. Doctoral-level training in public health, prevention science, criminology, and/or related social and behavioral science methods is preferred. Both positions are for full-time employment for an anticipated duration of approximately 16 months each. One position will be located in Atlanta, GA at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; the other position will be located in Philadelphia, PA at the University of Pennsylvania. These positions will support a demonstration project whose purpose is to implement the Cardiff Model of violence prevention in a United States setting. Atlanta applicants, send CV and cover letter to Sarah Bacon. Philadelphia applicants, send CV and cover letter to Prof. Greg Ridgeway. Deadline March 2, 2015.

Open-Rank Professor of Data Science, Departments of Computer Science, Sociology and Economics, Queens College. Queens College seeks an established or emerging researcher (Job # 10668) in the area of data science with significant research experience in applying and developing data science to address problems arising in the fields of population, demography, economics, linguistics, sociology, or other areas. An established research agenda with substantial outside funding support or a potential for such funding is highly desirable. Competitive emerging researchers will demonstrate a clear research agenda and high potential for career growth. The successful applicant will be placed in the appropriate department by mutual agreement. This position is part of the CUNY-wide cyber infrastructure initiative. Deadline: March 6, 2015.

Cornell University

Research Associate, University of Cambridge. The Department of Sociology is seeking to appoint one suitably qualified individual as a Research Associate (# JM05271) to work with Professor Lawrence King on a European Research Council funded research project examining the relationship between mass privatization and mortality in post-communist Eastern Europe. The research associate will be expected to assist with the preparation and analysis of data sets, the preparation of manuscripts for scholarly publication. The post will start on the 1st of April 2015 and will run until 31st of March 2017. Applications are invited from individuals who have expertise and research experience in analysing complex demographic surveys and demographic modelling of mortality outcomes. Applicants must have, or be working towards, a PhD in demography, epidemiology, statistics, sociology or a related discipline at the time of appointment. Deadline: March 10, 2015.

Researcher, Berlin Institute for Migration and Integration Research, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin. Research work in the department of "Labor Market, Migration, and Integration" at the Berlin Institute for Migration and Integration Research (BIM), with a particular focus on quantitative and empirical labor market research in the area of migration and integration; international publication of research findings; joint acquisition of external funding in the field of labor market research; assistance in the organization of workshops. Job ID: DR/013/15. Deadline March 13, 2015.

Postdoctoral Research Associate, Washington State University. The Postdoctoral Research Associate (Social Scientist) will work as part of the project team, specifically the Technology Adoption Working Group headed by Dr. Jessica Goldberger (Rural Sociologist) in the Department of Crop and Soil Sciences (<http://css.wsu.edu>) in the College of Agricultural, Human, and Natural Resource Sciences (<http://cahnrs.wsu.edu>). This work is part of a large, multi-institutional, multi-disciplinary project funded by the U.S. department of Agriculture's Specialty Crop Research Initiative (SCRI). The position is a temporary, 12 month, full-time position with the ability to renew annually, pending funding and successful review and progress. Deadline: March 20, 2015.

Open Rank Professor of Economics, Purdue University. The Department of Economics invites applications for at least one tenure-track or tenured position. Candidates at all ranks (Assistant, Associate and Full Professor) will be considered; appointments will begin August, 2015. The Department is seeking applications from exceptional candidates in all fields; candidates in the areas of Industrial Organization, Health, Education, Labor and Public Economics are particularly encouraged to apply. Candidates are expected to conduct policy-relevant research, to supervise Ph.D. dissertation research and to teach at the graduate and undergraduate levels. The positions require a Ph.D. in economics or closely related field. Deadline: March 31, 2015.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to PhD students in all social science graduate fields. Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student's special committee is a CPC affiliate. Students interested in signing up for the Demography minor should contact Lindy Williams or Geysa Smiljanic.

Cornell University

CORNELL POPULATION CENTER

CPC Graduate Student Demography/Population Reading Group. For each meeting, a participant will serve as the leader, providing 2 or 3 articles and/or chapters to read related to their topic of interest. This group will facilitate student exposure to a breadth of literature across all of population studies and also develop some cross-disciplinary links. If you are interested in participating, please just send your name, department, and general area of interest/specialty to Christopher Gronberg.

Call for Applications: UC Davis, Visiting Graduate Student Scholars. The Center for Poverty Research at UC Davis seeks applications from graduate students who are interested in visiting the Center in order to expand their understanding of the causes and consequences of poverty. The Center anticipates hosting up to 4 graduate students during fall quarter 2015. We seek applications from Ph.D. students in a variety of disciplines, including economics, psychology, sociology, social work, public policy and graduate schools of law and education, with research interests in our core research areas: labor markets and poverty; non-cash safety net, broadly construed to include education and health policies; children and the intergenerational transmission of poverty; immigration and poverty, especially in connection with the above three areas. Deadline: March 2, 2015.

7th Annual Cornell Sociology Research Symposium. March 11, 2015, 1:30-6:00pm, ILR Conference Center. The Sociology Graduate Student Association is holding its spring Sociology "mini-conference" for graduate student works-in-progress. A keynote speech by Professor Jon Kleinberg (Computer and Information Science, Cornell University) and a wine and beer reception will follow the event.

NIH: Predoctoral Fellowships \(F31\). National Institutes of Health (NIH), Individual Predoctoral Fellowships To Promote Diversity In Health-Related Research. Must be enrolled in a program leading to a PhD in science or in an equivalent research doctoral degree program. Standard NIH dates apply. Next cycle: April 13.

Call for Applications: EDSD. The European Doctoral School of Demography (EDSD) invites applications for school year 2015-2016. The EDSD is an eleven-month program that is offered every year, with the goal to provide students in the first year of their doctoral studies with an appropriate high-level education in demography. Students will acquire a solid knowledge base on causes and consequences of demographic change, population data, statistical and mathematical demography, as well as modeling, simulation and forecasting. The School's courses are structured in such a way that the students work on precise formulation of a thesis topic and early steps of their dissertations. The language of the School is English. Deadline: April 15, 2015.

Census Pathways Summer Internship Program. The Census Bureau is seeking bright, innovative, results-oriented individuals to join our Pathways- Internship Program. The Pathways Internship Program targets students accepted for enrollment or currently enrolled in a degree-seeking program (diploma, certificate, etc.) in an accredited/qualifying educational institution, on a full or half-time basis. Internships can be seasonal (spring, summer, fall) or year round. Deadline: August 17, 2015.
