FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

NICHD/NIH, Population Dynamics Branch \(PDB\). The PDB supports research and research training in demography, reproductive health, and population health. Ongoing FOAs.

Cornell University

CORNELL POPULATION CENTER

NIA/NIH, Division of Behavioral and Social Research \(BSR\). The BSR supports social, behavioral, and economic research and research training on the processes of aging at both the individual and societal level. Ongoing FOAs.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Research Scientist, Reproductive Health and Family Formation, Child Trends. Child Trends has an opening for a Research Scientist in its Reproductive Health and Family Formation research area. This person will be responsible for conducting qualitative and quantitative research and evaluation projects primarily on adolescent relationships, sexual activity, and contraceptive use; unintended pregnancy and childbearing; and male fertility behaviors in collaboration with senior staff members. Research studies in this area place special emphasis on racial/ethnic minorities, in particular Latinos, and low-income families. Deadline: Open until filled.

Open-Rank, Tenure-Track, Professor of Political and Social Science, Pompeu Fabra University \(Spain\). The Department of Political and Social Science at the Pompeu Fabra University invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in the area of sociology starting in September of 2016. A fast tenure-track may be considered based on the candidate's research experience and academic position. Applicants should hold a PhD in Sociology, Demography, Economics or Statistics, with a strong background in quantitative research methods and a sound post-doc experience in research and teaching. Preferred area of specialization is social stratification with special interest in social deviance. Deadline: March 14, 2016.

Research and Evaluation Migration Specialist, UNICEF. The Office of Research–Innocenti (OoR) seeks an experienced researcher (based in Florence, Italy) who will assist the Office in developing and executing a research programme on children and migration. The new research area would relate to the Office's overall work on child wellbeing, child rights and child protection, aiming to enhance knowledge and evidence about the impacts of various forms of mobility on children. Advanced university degree in the social or political sciences, development studies, law and human rights, or related fields. Deadline: March 19, 2016.

Assistant/Associate Director, Sustainable Intensification Innovation Lab, Kansas State University. Kansas State University is the management entity for The Sustainable Intensification Innovation Lab (SIIL) funded by USAID. SIIL supports research, knowledge sharing, and capacity building activities in relation to small-holder farming systems focused on ecological intensification in Africa and Asia (Senegal, Burkina Faso, Tanzania, Ethiopia, Bangladesh and Cambodia). The Assistant/Associate Director (AD) will have 50% management and 50% research commitment. The AD will serve as the administrative officer alongside the Program Director (PD) and will oversee the organizing activities to facilitate technical and administrative goals of our program. Advanced degree in agricultural economics, social sciences or other related fields. Experience in international research and development, and program implementation in Africa or Asia. Deadline: March 21, 2016.

U. S. Census Bureau Recruiting at the 2016 PAA Annual Meetings. The U.S. Census Bureau has full-time and summer internship opportunities for qualified U.S. citizens in the areas of geography, demography, sociology, economics, and related social sciences. We are looking for candidates at all levels of education. Training in demographic analysis, survey research, geographic information systems, and/or quantitative data analysis of large datasets is preferred. These openings offer the opportunity to work on one or more of the following topics: population distribution; population estimates and projections; housing; social and economic characteristics; employment; disability; health insurance coverage; and migration. Representatives will be recruiting during the 2016 PAA annual meeting in Washington, DC. We will conduct 30 minute informational recruiting sessions during the conference (March 31 and April 1) from 9:00am-5:00pm. Please email David Zaslow to sign up prior to the conference or visit the Census Bureau's exhibition booth during the conference. In in addition, there will be an open-to-all session, in the Cleveland 1 room (mezzanine level) on Thursday, March 31, from 12:00-1:00 pm.

\(2\) Fellowships, European Societies and their Integration, MZES. The MZES is an interdisciplinary research institute of the University of Mannheim dedicated to comparative European social research and the analysis of European integration processes. The Centre seeks to recruit outstanding social scientists as Research Fellows to work in Research Department European Societies and their Integration. Candidates should have completed their PhD with an excellent dissertation in Sociology or a related discipline within the last five years. Deadline: April 2, 2016.

Chief of Population Studies Branch, United Nations. The position is located in the Population Division of the Department of Economic and Social Affairs and reports to the Director. The incumbent works under the supervision of the Director of the Population Division and assists the Director in implementing the work programme of the Population Studies Branch, which comprises the Population Estimates and Projections Section, the Population and Development Section, and the Mortality Section. Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent degree) in demography, or in a related field such as sociology, statistics or economics with an emphasis in population. Deadline: April 14, 2016.

Radboud Excellence Fellowships, Radboud University Nijmegen \(the Netherlands\). The Radboud University Nijmegen (the Netherlands) invites applications for the Radboud Excellence fellowships. The Radboud Excellence fellowships are intended for exceptionally talented young researchers. The researchers will be selected on the basis of their academic record as well as on a promising and original research plan. Twenty fellowships at Radboud University are offered every year. These are intended for non-Dutch researchers based outside the Netherlands who have obtained their doctorates between two and twelve years ago. The Department of Sociology aims to nominate two candidates for these fellowships. For the Department of Sociology researchers can apply for themes of inequality or cohesion. Nomination and selection takes place twice per year. Next application deadline: May 1, 2016.

Open-rank position in Quantitative Sociology, ENSAE-CREST \(Paris-based\). We are currently inviting applications for an open-rank, tenure-track or tenured, faculty position in quantitative sociology at ENSAE-CREST. The successful candidate is expected to demonstrate, besides a solid general knowledge in sociology, proficiency in data analysis and quantitative methods and an international-level publication record or potential. Familiarity with international survey data and comparisons as well as an interest in social network analysis and/or Big Data will be appreciated. The position has no citizenship requirement. Deadline: May 16, 2016.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to PhD students in all social science graduate fields. Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student's special committee is a CPC affiliate. Students interested in signing up for the Demography minor should contact Lindy Williams or Geysa Smiljanic.

Paid Summer Internship, Population Dynamics Branch of NIH/NICHHD. This position is ideal for a detail-oriented, motivated graduate student or postdoctoral fellow who is looking to gain exposure to a broad range of activities in a funding organization. The intern will assist in the planning, implementation, and coordination of activities in support of PDB initiatives, particularly those related to enhancing research infrastructure and training in demography. Deadline: March 15, 2016.
