EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Research Scientist, Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research \(MPIDR\). The Research Scientist will conduct research in the Laboratory of Demographic Data. Qualified demographers, mathematicians, sociologists, statisticians, and other scientists with experience in demographic methods or analysis of demographic data are invited to apply. The successful applicant must have a Ph.D. or equivalent degree in demography, actuarial studies, statistics, mathematics, epidemiology, or a related discipline. A proven record in fertility and population research and proficiency in demographic methods is desirable. Open until filled.

Beverly A. Brown Professorship for Improvement in Urban Health, Boston University. The Beverly A. Brown Professor of Urban Health will take the lead in growing the urban health program through coordinating and synthesizing the current urban health research, teaching, and service activities from around the University. The successful candidate will have an outstanding scholarly record, a commitment to cross-disciplinary research and an earned doctorate in a relevant discipline (city and regional planning, demography, economics, epidemiology, social work, sociology, public health, etc.). Open until filled.

\(4\) Postdoctoral Associates, Centre for Economic Demography, Lund University \(Sweden\). The Centre for Economic Demography is presently seeking to fill up to four post-doctoral positions in Economic Demography. The positions are full-time with a two-year limit of tenure. The post-doctoral researchers will work together with senior researchers within any of the following four research areas: 1) Family formation and income development across the educational gradient; 2) Educational careers and economic success among first and second generation immigrants; 3) Parental education, income and child health; 4) Early childhood, education and income development. Application deadline: April 15, 2014.

\(2\) Assistant Professor of Social Science, University of Mannheim \(Germany\). The School of Social Sciences at the University of Mannheim invites applications for two positions: (1) Assistant Professor in "Sociology with a specialization in Longitudinal Data Analysis (W1); and (2) Assistant Professor in Statistics and Social Research Methods (W1). Application deadline: April 15, 2014.

NIMH T32 Postdoctoral Fellowship, University of Washington. Currently we are inviting applications for a July 1, 2014 start for this NIMH T32 fellowship "Improving Mental Health Care in Safety Net Medical Settings." This two-year fellowship offers time, mentorship, and resources to early career researchers with the goal of improving care for patients in safety net health care settings. Our goal is to mentor fellows to be principal investigators for NIH K and R studies. Applications are sought from a range of disciplines including medicine, health services, epidemiology, statistical methods, social work and social welfare, nursing, medical anthropology and sociology, communications, psychology, and ethnic studies. Application deadline: April 15, 2014.

\(2\) Postdoctoral Research Associate, Texas CRDC. The Texas Census Research Data Center (TXCRDC) seeks applications for two openings for one- or two-year postdoctoral social science research positions starting as early as July 1, 2014. Research at the TXCRDC is interdisciplinary with investigators being drawn from diverse fields including economics, demography, education, geography, management, political science, public health, public policy, sociology, and urban planning. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in demography, economics, geography, political science, public health, sociology, urban planning, or a related social science discipline on or before August 31, 2014. Application deadline: May 1, 2014.

Research Associates, Institute for the Study of Labor \(IZA\). The Institute for the Study of Labor (IZA) is an international research center associated with the University of Bonn producing independent academic research of the highest quality standards. IZA has a special emphasis on, but is not restricted to, policy-relevant labor market topics and has openings for Research Associates starting in fall 2014 (or earlier). Associates will join the core research staff in Bonn. Successful candidates are expected to publish their research in top peer-reviewed journals and contribute to the intellectual environment of IZA. The ideal candidate is a recent Ph.D. (or close to completion) with excellent knowledge of econometrics and applied and policy-oriented labor issues. The appointment is for up to 6 years, initially for 3 years, with possibility of renewal for another 3 years. Application deadline: May 31, 2014.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to PhD students in all social science graduate fields. Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student's special committee is a CPC affiliate. Students interested in signing up for the Demography minor should contact Lindy Williams or Geysa Smiljanic.

CPC PAA 2014 Travel Grants. The Cornell Population Center (CPC) is pleased to once again offer travel grants for student affiliates to attend the Population Association of America (PAA) 2014 Annual Meeting in Boston, MA, May 1-3, 2014. The CPC will reimburse up to $400 for student affiliates presenting a paper or poster and up to $200 for student affiliates attending (and not presenting). Funds are limited and travel grants are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis with funding priority for presenting students. If you are interested in applying for a PAA 2014 travel grant, please e-mail Erin Oates and indicate whether you are presenting or attending.
