EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Assistant/Associate Professor of Policy Analysis, Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University. The Department of Public Administration and International Affairs in Syracuse University's Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs invites applications for one or more Assistant/Associate tenure-track or tenured appointments (job#072066). The Maxwell School aims to build in the area of public policy analysis. The substantive policy area of interest is open, and we welcome applications from those who study policy within both domestic and international contexts. Suggested topical areas include, but are not limited to, education policy, health policy, urban policy, environmental policy, or social welfare policy. Open until filled.

Assistant Professor, Health Behavior and Health Education, University of Michigan. The Department of Health Behavior and Health Education at the University of Michigan School of Public Health invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor faculty position in public health intervention dissemination and implementation science to begin September 1, 2016. Applications are encouraged from candidates using dissemination and/or implementation science to address public health challenges associated to our department's key areas of specialization: Health Behavior over the Lifecourse; Health Disparities; Gender, Sexuality and Population Health; Health Communication; Community, Networks and Ecological Practice; and/or Research Methods. Candidates' research may focus on populations in domestic and/or global contexts. Open until filled.

Assistant Professor of Environmental Sociology, University of Pennsylvania. The Department of Sociology at the University of Pennsylvania invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in environmental sociology. We encourage applications from candidates with expertise in the social factors that contribute to environmental problems and efforts to ameliorate these challenges as well as the social impact of those problems. Specific areas of inquiry include but are not limited to the relationship between industrialization/de-industrialization and environmental degradation, neighborhood ecological well-being and health inequalities, development policies and environment issues, the unequal distribution of environmental hazards, environmental awareness and engagement, and social mobilization related to environmental concerns. Application deadline: October 15, 2015.

Cornell University

CORNELL POPULATION CENTER

Assistant Professor of Social Inequality, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. The Department of Sociology at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign welcomes applications and nominations for a full-time tenure-track Assistant Professor in the field of social inequality, broadly construed. We are especially interested in scholars who approach these topics using quantitative or mixed methods, and whose research trajectory shows promise for seeking external funding. Candidates must possess strong theoretical, analytical, and empirical skills; a commitment to excellence in research and teaching is essential. Deadline: October 15, 2015.

Assistant Professor of Transnational Sociology, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. The Department of Sociology at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign welcomes applications and nominations for a full-time tenure-track Assistant Professor in the field of transnational sociology, broadly construed with specialization in globalization and gender, transnational gender inequality, transnational feminist or women's movements, qualitative or mixed methods. Candidates must possess strong theoretical, analytical, and empirical skills; a commitment to excellence in research and teaching is essential. Deadline: October 15, 2015.

Postdoctoral or Research Associate, The Socio-Economic Panel \(SOEP\) research infrastructure, DIW Berlin. The Socio-Economic Panel research infrastructure based at DIW Berlin is seeking to fill the following position, starting on December 1, 2015 for empirical research on migration and integration studies. Completed degree in sociology, economics, or related social science discipline (qualifying master's or Diplom degree) and completed doctoral degree. Deadline: October 18, 2015.

Assistant/Associate Professor of Poverty & Income Inequality, UC Berkeley School of Social Welfare. The School of Social Welfare at the University of California, Berkeley invites applications for a faculty position at the level of Associate or Assistant Professor, with an expected start date of July 1, 2016. (Search # JPF00779) We are looking to hire an Associate or Assistant Professor with a focus in the area of Poverty and Income Inequality. The minimum qualification required to be considered an applicant for the position is the completion of all PhD or equivalent degree requirements, except the dissertation, in Social Work/Welfare or a related field at the time of application. Evidence of scholarly work that includes a focus on poverty and/or income inequality, with an emphasis on how poverty and/or income inequality intersects with other social issues relevant to social welfare. Application deadline: October 19, 2015.

NICHD-funded Postdoctoral Fellow, PRC, The University of Texas at Austin. The Population Research Center (PRC) at The University of Texas at Austin will have one opening for NICHD-funded postdoctoral position starting September 1, 2016. This position is for one year, but is potentially renewable for a second year. The PRC is an interdisciplinary research and training unit of The University of Texas at Austin (UT) that provides infrastructure support services and project development support for a very productive, interdisciplinary group of faculty, postdocs, graduate students, and undergraduate students at UT. Most of the research is concentrated in four overlapping and reinforcing thematic areas: Health disparities, Educational Inequality & Opportunity, Partnership, Parenting, & Human Development, and Work and Stratification. Application deadline: October 30, 2015.

Lecturer in Demography, Australian Demographic and Social Research Institute. The Australian Demographic and Social Research Institute is seeking a Lecturer in the field of Demography. The successful candidate will have an outstanding record or demonstrated potential for excellence in research and publication in demography and will be expected to teach demography courses at both the undergraduate and Masters levels. In addition, the appointee will be expected to supervise Honours, Masters and PhD students and to work collegially with other members of the Institute and Research School of Social Sciences. This is a teaching and research position, and significant research outcomes are expected. The level of appointment will depend on qualifications and experience. Application deadline: October 30, 2015.

Assistant Professor of Social Work, Boston College. The Boston College School of Social Work seeks a Tenure Track Assistant Professor whose work focuses on substantive issues of race, especially in areas such as health, mental health, global health, criminology/juvenile justice, education, or the environment. The faculty candidate must possess a Ph.D. by June 30, 2016 in social work or related disciplines such as public health, sociology, psychology, education, and public policy. Application deadline: November 1, 2015.

Postdoctoral Research Associate in Environment and Society, Brown University. The Institute at Brown for Environment and Society (IBES) seeks candidates for one or more distinguished postdoctoral positions in interdisciplinary environmental science. IBES was founded in 2014, building on strength across campus in interdisciplinary environmental research. IBES organizes its research activities into four themes: Natural Systems, Food and Water, Human Health and Well-Being, and Equity and Governance. Postdoctoral Fellows will be expected to work within one or more of these themes, and to be mentored by at least one IBES Faculty Fellow. Requirements for the positions include a Ph.D. in an environmentally-related discipline, the intellectual flexibility to reach across fields, ability to take initiative and work independently, and demonstrated interest in interdisciplinary environmental research. Application deadline: November 1, 2015.

Assistant Professor Department of Public Health Sciences, UC Davis. The University of California, Davis, School of Medicine, Department of Public Health Sciences invites applications for a faculty position at the Assistant Professor level with expertise in public health and poverty policy research and teaching. This is a full-time tenure track appointment. Successful applicants must have a Ph.D. or Dr.P.H. in public health, epidemiology, economics, sociology, anthropology or a related field; or an M.D. with an accompanying public health graduate degree. The candidate must have experience developing and conducting population-based research and a focus on studying the social, behavioral and economic determinants of health. Deadline: November 1, 2015.

Assistant Professor of Sociology, Texas Tech University. The Department of Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work seeks applications for a tenure track assistant professor in sociology with a primary research area in the Sociology of health/mental health/medical sociology and who also specialize in quantitative methods. Secondary areas are open. The successful candidate needs to complete all the requirements for a PhD in sociology before starting the appointment (September 1, 2016). Deadline: November 2, 2015.

\(2\) Open-Ranked, Tenure-Track Professor, UCLA Fielding School of Public Health \(FSPH\). The UCLA Fielding School of Public Health (FSPH) seeks applicants for two open-ranked tenure-track or tenured faculty positions whose research and teaching focuses on assessing the impact of social policies and programs designed to improve population health at the national and global level. Successful candidates will hold a primary appointment in one of FSPH's five departments, which are Biostatistics, Community Health Sciences, Environmental Health Sciences, Epidemiology, and Health Policy and Management. Successful candidates may also hold a joint appointment across two departments. Candidates must hold a doctoral degree (PhD, ScD, DrPH or equivalent). We encourage applications from candidates in all disciplines of public health as well as a wide range of related fields including the social and behavioral sciences, statistics, public policy, and economics. Candidates must demonstrate strong skills in statistical analysis, research methods, and recent advances in quantitative methods. Deadline: November 8, 2015.

2016 NCHS/AcademyHealth Health Policy Fellowship. The NCHS/AcademyHealth Health Policy Fellowship program brings experts in health services research-related disciplines to the National Center for Health Statistics

Cornell University

(NCHS) to conduct studies to address important issues in health policy. The selected fellow gains full access to NCHS data resources as well as several opportunities for professional development, collaboration, mentoring partnerships, and dissemination. During the 13 month tenure, the selected fellow will work closely with an NCHS staff member who can provide technical expertise related to the fellow's research, assist in accessing NCHS data systems and other resources, and help identify other collaborative opportunities within the Center. Application deadline: November 9, 2015.

Open Ranked, Tenure-Track Professor of Urban Planning, UCLA, Luskin School of Public Affairs. The UCLA Department of Urban Planning invites applications for a tenured or tenure-track faculty position in transportation. We seek a bold, innovative thinker who is, or soon will be, a leading scholar of cities and regions. We welcome applicants with varied research interests, though the candidate selected must be able to contribute substantially to our transportation policy and planning curriculum. All applicants should hold a PhD at the time of appointment and demonstrate exceptional promise for scholarship and teaching. While we expect to appoint at the rank of Assistant Professor, applicants and appointments at all levels will be considered. Deadline: November 16, 2015.

Assistant Professor, Sanford School of Public Policy, Duke University. The Sanford School of Public Policy invites applications for a position at the rank of assistant professor in the area of education policy. While we are open with respect to particular research focus, we are especially interested in finding a scholar/teacher whose research demonstrates the interest and ability to use large data sets (including administrative records) to pursue education-policy relevant questions. The position is open with respect to discipline. Applicants will be expected to teach core courses in one or more of our degree programs as well as electives in their research area. Candidates must have a Ph.D. in public policy or a related field with demonstrated policy relevant research interests. Deadline: November 23, 2015.

Open Rank Professor of Family Science, University of Maryland, School of Public Health. The Department of Family Science, School of Public Health, University of Maryland, College Park seeks a full-time tenure track (Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor) (job #106047) to help the Department further enhance its national leadership at the forefront of research and education on health and families. Candidates should hold a doctoral degree (Ph.D., Sc.D.) in maternal and child health, family and reproductive health, or another relevant public health field; family science; demography; human development or related social science discipline. Application deadline: December 1, 2015.

Postdoctoral Fellowships, Harvard Center for Population and Development Studies. The Harvard Center for Population and Development Studies is currently accepting applications for two postdoctoral fellowships: the David E. Bell Fellowship and the Sloan Fellowship on Aging and Work. Selected candidates will enter these programs in September 2016. The Bell Fellowship is an interdisciplinary postdoctoral training program designed for researchers and practitioners in the field of population sciences. The Sloan Fellowship is a new interdisciplinary, postdoctoral training program that will address the challenges of aging societies and labor force participation. Application deadline: December 7, 2015.

Postdoctoral Research Associate, Princeton University. The group of Johannes Haushofer in the Department of Psychology and the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University is seeking applications for one or more positions at the level of postdoctoral or more senior research associate (Job #1500260). We are interested in understanding the relationship between poverty, psychology, and economic choice, and conduct lab and field experiments in both developing and developed countries, using approaches from psychology and economics. Initial appointment is for one year with possibility for renewal pending satisfactory performance and funding availability. PhD in economics, psychology, neuroscience, or related field. Deadline: December 30, 2015.

Assistant Professor of Demography/Political Science/Sociology, Bocconi University \(Milan, Italy\). The Department of Policy Analysis and Public Management of Bocconi University, Milan, Italy invites applications for tenure-track positions at the junior faculty level in Demography/Political Science/Sociology, and related fields. The appointment will start in September 2016. Knowledge of Italian is not required. Responsibilities include teaching and, most importantly, productivity in research. Applicants should have or be close to completing a PhD and will have demonstrated strong potential in research and teaching. Deadline: December 31, 2015.

Postdoctoral Fellowship in Developing Asia Health Policy, Stanford University. The Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center, Stanford University (Shorenstein APARC) and the Asia Pacific Observatory on Health Systems and Policy (APO) are pleased to announce their collaborative Developing Asia Health Policy Fellowship. The Postdoctoral Fellow will participate in the Stanford Asia Health Policy Program while undertaking original research on contemporary health or healthcare policy of high relevance to countries in the Asia-Pacific region, especially developing countries. Deadline: January 15, 2016.

Postdoctoral Research Fellow, The Office of Population Research, Princeton University. The Office of Population Research, Princeton University invites applications for an NIH postdoctoral research fellow. The start date for this appointment will be September 2016. Appointment is for one year, with possibility of renewal based on satisfactory performance and continued funding. Applicants must apply online and include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, 1-3 page projected research plan, writing samples, a list of publications and contact information for 3 references. Screening of applicants will start on February 1, 2016.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to PhD students in all social science graduate fields. Admission to the Demography minor requires that at least one member of the student's special committee is a CPC affiliate. Students interested in signing up for the Demography minor should contact Lindy Williams or Geysa Smiljanic.

PAM/DSOC 6720 - Demography Proseminar. Offered Fall 2015. One of the core courses required of graduate students enrolled in the PhD minor field of demography. The course generally is taken by second-year students after they have completed one graduate-level course in demographic methods and one substantive demography course. The course's objective is to introduce graduate students to demography's substantive and methodological breadth from various disciplinary perspectives. The course is team taught by affiliated faculty of the Cornell Population Center.

Dissertation Fellowship Program. Opportunity for next generation of scholars to pursue quality research in areas such as retirement income, older workers, or well-being in retirement. Up to three $28,000 fellowships awarded to doctoral candidates enrolled in a U.S. university's accredited program. Deadline: January 31, 2016.
