EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

CPC Postdoctoral Associate \(Frank H.T. Rhodes Postdoctoral Fellow\). The Cornell Population Center (CPC) invites applicants for the Frank H.T. Rhodes Postdoctoral Fellowships. The start date for the position will be August 15, 2016 and will be funded for 2 years, subject to a satisfactory first year evaluation. Selection will be based on scholarly potential, ability to work in multi-disciplinary settings, and the support of a faculty mentor and CPC affiliate at Cornell who will work closely with the post-doctoral associate. Preference will be given to fellows with research interests in areas broadly related to the CPC's four main foci: families & children; health behaviors & disparities; poverty & inequality; and immigration & diversity. Applications must include: (a) letter of application, (b) curriculum vita, (c) a statement proposing both an individual research project and how the candidate will engage with a CPC faculty affiliate's on-going research, (d) examples of written work, (e) a letter from a CPC faculty affiliate agreeing to mentor the candidate, and (f) three letters of recommendation. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in demography, economics, sociology, or another related social science discipline by August 15, 2016. For questions, please contact Erin Oates. Screening of applications begins December 15, 2015, and will continue until the position is filled.

\(7\) Open-rank Professor \(WOT\) of Global Health, University of Washington. The Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation and the Department of Global Health within the School of Medicine and the School of Public Health at the University of Washington are recruiting to fill several (up to 7) full-time and/or part-time faculty positions at the Assistant, Associate and Full Professor without tenure level. The successful applicants will have an MD or PhD (or foreign equivalent) in statistics, spatial statistics, ecology, epidemiology, genetics, population health, or a related field. The successful applicant will have a proven record of quantitative research in spatial and temporal modeling of diseases using multiple and large data sets. Open until filled.

Postdoctoral Research Associate in Spatial Analysis, Population Studies & Training Center, Brown University. The Research Associate will participate in a variety of research projects associated with the University's initiative on Spatial Structures in the Social Sciences. The tentative starting date is 7/1/16. Major current studies are focused on the use of historical census data for the period 1880-1940 for which 100% population microdata are available. Projects include: 1) examination of Bayesian models to improve small area estimation, 2) identification of neighborhoods based on race, ethnicity and class composition, 2) studies of neighborhood change and segregation trends over time, and 4) analyses of individuals' recruitment into specific locations. Open until filled.

\(2\) Open Rank, Tenure-Track Professor of Consumer Science, University of Wisconsin–Madison. The Department of Consumer Science, University of Wisconsin–Madison is recruiting 2 new tenure-track or tenured faculty members (rank open). We seek scholars in the broad area of family and consumer economic wellbeing, with particular interest in such areas as consumer finance, consumer policy, financial behavior and decision making, resource management, etc. Collectively these positions will provide leadership and support to our newly

Cornell University

CORNELL POPULATION CENTER

restructured Consumer Finance and Financial Planning programs, with one position serving as Faculty Director. PhD in a relevant social science field. Specialization in an area related to family economic wellbeing, consumer issues/policy, consumer finance, or household resource management. Deadline: December 6, 2015.

\(2\) Postdoctoral Research Scientists, Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research. The Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research is recruiting two post-doctoral research scientists to work on labor demography. The project focuses on understanding the determinants and differences in the length and productivity of working and retirement lives, across and within populations. The project is conducted in collaboration with two other laboratories at the MPIDR, Lab of Population Health, and Lab of Fertility and Well-being. Successful candidates will have strong quantitative skills and background in the social sciences. Deadline: December 7, 2015

NIH T32 Postdoctoral Scholar, Carolina Population Center. The Carolina Population Center requests applications for (one) postdoctoral scholar position to begin no later than January 19, 2016. This position is supported by a T32 training grant from the Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute for Child Health and Human Development (NICHD); funding restrictions require the postdoctoral scholar to be a US citizen or Legal Permanent Resident. The initial term of appointment is one year, but reappointment for a second (final year) is expected. Application deadline: December 7, 2015.

Postdoctoral Fellowships, Harvard Center for Population and Development Studies. The Harvard Center for Population and Development Studies is currently accepting applications for two postdoctoral fellowships: the David E. Bell Fellowship and the Sloan Fellowship on Aging and Work. Selected candidates will enter these programs in September 2016. The Bell Fellowship is an interdisciplinary postdoctoral training program designed for researchers and practitioners in the field of population sciences. The Sloan Fellowship is a new interdisciplinary, postdoctoral training program that will address the challenges of aging societies and labor force participation. Application deadline: December 7, 2015.

Research Coordinator, Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research. The Research Coordinator will support the MaxNetAging Director and advise on the development of the scientific program. Duties include the organization of international conferences, workshops, and lectures; the coordination of the study program; and communication with the network's partner institutions. Applicants must have a PhD in the humanities, social sciences or natural sciences, ideally in a subject relevant to aging research. High proficiency in German and English is required. Application deadline: December 13, 2015.

NIH T32 Postdoctoral Research Associate, Population Studies & Training Center, Brown University. The Population Studies and Training Center at Brown University is currently recruiting a two-year Postdoctoral Research Associate to start on or around July 2016. This position is funded by a T32 training grant from the National Institute for Child Health and Human Development, and funding restrictions require the postdoctoral researcher to be a US citizen or Legal Permanent Resident. Postdoctoral Fellows must have a Ph.D. in anthropology, economics, sociology, demography, or a related social science discipline. Screening of applications will begin December 15, 2015, and will continue until the position is filled (for full consideration please submit materials by January 1, 2016).

Lecturer\(s\) in Comparative Sociology and Sociology, University College Dublin, Ireland. Applications are invited for two permanent Lectureships in the UCD School of Sociology (Job #007851). For one of these lectureships, we are interested in candidates who can make a significant contribution in the field of Comparative Sociology. The second post in Sociology should contribute to and strengthen one or more of the following strategic areas: Comparative Social Change; Crime, Violence and Conflict; Cultural Sociology; Health, Wellbeing and Society or Global Migration and Cultural Differences. Applicants must have a PhD in Sociology or cognate discipline, a strong, demonstrable commitment to research and international publication, an ability to teach at University level, a capacity for graduate student supervision, and a capacity and enthusiasm for working both within the discipline as well as interdisciplinary settings. Application deadline: December 18, 2015.

Postdoctoral Research Associate, Princeton University. The group of Johannes Haushofer in the Department of Psychology and the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University is seeking applications for one or more positions at the level of postdoctoral or more senior research associate (Job #1500260). We are interested in understanding the relationship between poverty, psychology, and economic choice, and conduct lab and field experiments in both developing and developed countries, using approaches from psychology and economics. Initial appointment is for one year with possibility for renewal pending satisfactory performance and funding availability. PhD in economics, psychology, neuroscience, or related field. Deadline: December 30, 2015.

Assistant Professor of Demography/Political Science/Sociology, Bocconi University \(Milan, Italy\). The Department of Policy Analysis and Public Management of Bocconi University, Milan, Italy invites applications for tenure-track positions at the junior faculty level in Demography/Political Science/Sociology, and related fields. The appointment will start in September 2016. Knowledge of Italian is not required. Responsibilities include teaching and, most importantly, productivity in research. Applicants should have or be close to completing a PhD and will have demonstrated strong potential in research and teaching. Deadline: December 31, 2015.

\(4\) Open-rank, Faculty Cluster Hires for Race, Immigration, and Integration: Empirical and Applied Approaches, UC Riverside. This cluster aims to bolster this emerging strength in social science research related to “Race, Immigration, and Integration: Empirical and Applied Approaches.” The placement of each successful candidate may be in the Graduate School of Education, the School of Public Policy, the School of Medicine, or in the departments of Anthropology, Ethnic Studies, Political Science, or Sociology, depending on the preferences of the candidate and the host departments. Topical areas of focus in this cluster search include: 1) social movement and political power, 2) educational opportunities across the K-16 education pipeline with a focus on racialization, including its intersections with class, gender, sexuality, and immigration status, 3) Media and its relationship to social attitudes, civic engagement, and community formation; and 4) demography and public health. Senior and Junior application materials. Deadline: January 1, 2016.

Assistant Professor of Sociology, Trinity College Dublin \(Ireland\). Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin, invites applications for a full-time permanent Assistant Professorship in Sociology (any area of specialisation). Deadline: January 6, 2016.

Editor-in-Chief, Population Studies: A Journal of Demography. The Population Investigation Committee (PIC) seeks applications or expressions of interest for the position of Editor-in-Chief (EiC) of Population Studies: A Journal of Demography, which is owned by the PIC and published for them by the UK office of Taylor & Francis. The successful applicant would lead the team of eleven editors listed below, and succeed John Simons, the current EiC, who is retiring. The appointment will be made by the PIC after consulting the editors. Deadline: January 6, 2016.

NIH Postdoctoral Fellow, Institute for Social Research Population Studies Center, University of Michigan. The Population Studies Center expects to have openings for postdoctoral fellows sponsored by National Institute on Aging (NIA) and The Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD). Positions to start on or about September 1, 2016. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in demography, public health, or one of the social sciences (e.g., sociology, economics, psychology) at the starting date. Applicants for the NIA positions need not have a background in aging research (although it is desirable) but they must propose an aging-related research project as part of their application. Application deadline: January 7, 2016.

\(4\) Open-rank, Faculty Cluster Hires for Design-based Statistical Inference for Social Science and Policy Evaluation, UC Riverside. The University of California, Riverside (UCR) invites applications for four faculty cluster hires at an open rank in design-based statistical inference for social science and policy evaluation. Relevant disciplines include, but are not limited to, Business, Economics, Education, Medicine (Epidemiology and Public Health), Political Science, Public Policy, Sociology, and Statistics/Biostatistics. Senior and Junior application materials. Deadline: January 8, 2016.

Research Analysts, The Tobin Project. The Tobin Project seeks an exceptional individual to join our collaborative and entrepreneurial team as a Research Analyst focusing on our Inequality and Decision Making Initiative. The Research Analyst will work with leading behavioral social scientists and Tobin Project leadership to conceptualize, generate, and strengthen new research on the effects of economic inequality on individual behavior and decision making. Deadline: January 11, 2016.

2016 Moore/Sloan Data Science and WRF Innovation in Data Science Postdoctoral Fellowships. The University of Washington eScience Institute announces a competition for the 2016 Moore/Sloan Data Science and Washington Research Foundation Innovation in Data Science Postdoctoral Fellowships. We seek outstanding interdisciplinary researchers with expertise in the methods of data science and in a physical, life, or social science. Fellows are provided with annual salary support of $65,000 for two years and an additional stipend of $25,000 over the total period of the appointment that can be used for travel, equipment, software, undergraduate research assistants, or other research costs. Deadline: January 15, 2016.

Postdoctoral Fellow, PRI at Penn State. The Population Research Institute (PRI) at The Pennsylvania State University anticipates an opening for a postdoctoral fellow in the NICHD-supported Family Demography and Individual Development training program, starting on or about August 15, 2016. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in demography, sociology, family studies, or a related social science discipline by the starting date. A strong background in quantitative analysis of social science data is desirable. The training program is oriented toward a postdoctoral research apprenticeship in two areas: family demography, and life course development processes and outcomes. Deadline: January 15, 2016.

Postdoctoral Fellowship in Developing Asia Health Policy, Stanford University. The Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center, Stanford University (Shorenstein APARC) and the Asia Pacific Observatory on Health Systems and Policy (APO) are pleased to announce their collaborative Developing Asia Health Policy Fellowship. The Postdoctoral Fellow will participate in the Stanford Asia Health Policy Program while undertaking original research on contemporary health or healthcare policy of high relevance to countries in the Asia-Pacific region, especially developing countries. Deadline: January 15, 2016.

Professor of Sociology, Umeå University \(Sweden\). The department of Sociology is recruiting a professor in sociology with starting date as soon as possible or according to agreement. The position is permanent. The successful candidate will be expected to lead the research and development of the research environment at the department by conducting research as well as teaching (20%) and supervision at undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral levels. Responsibilities will also include informing about the department's research and development activities, initiating and participating in the planning of research projects and actively working with applications for external funding. Deadline: January 18, 2016.

Health Disparities Postdoctoral Fellowship, University of Wisconsin, Madison. The University of Wisconsin's Center for Women's Health and Health Disparities Research has is seeking applications for an open postdoctoral position to begin by May 1, 2016. Committee looking for overall strength and promise of the applicant plus ability as independent researcher, analytical and research skills, and ability to work in an interdisciplinary team. Deadline: February 1, 2016.

NIH Postdoctoral Research Fellow, The Office of Population Research, Princeton University. The Office of Population Research, Princeton University invites applications for an NIH postdoctoral research fellow. The start date for this appointment will be September 2016. Appointment is for one year, with possibility of renewal based on satisfactory performance and continued funding. Applicants must apply online and include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, 1-3 page projected research plan, writing samples, a list of publications and contact information for 3 references. Screening of applicants will start on February 1, 2016.

Open-Rank, Tenure-Track, Professor of Political and Social Science, Pompeu Fabra University. The Department of Political and Social Science at the Pompeu Fabra University invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in the area of sociology starting in September of 2016. A fast tenure-track may be considered based on the candidate's research experience and academic position. Applicants should hold a PhD in Sociology, Demography, Economics or Statistics, with a strong background in quantitative research methods and a sound post-doc experience in research and teaching. Preferred area of specialization is social stratification with special interest in social deviance. Deadline: March 14, 2016.

Radboud Excellence Fellowships, Radboud University Nijmegen \(the Netherlands\). The Radboud University Nijmegen (the Netherlands) invites applications for the Radboud Excellence fellowships. The Radboud Excellence fellowships are intended for exceptionally talented young researchers. The researchers will be selected on the basis of their academic record as well as on a promising and original research plan. Twenty fellowships at Radboud University are offered every year. These are intended for non-Dutch researchers based outside the Netherlands who have obtained their doctorates between two and twelve years ago. The Department of Sociology aims to nominate two candidates for these fellowships. For the Department of Sociology researchers can apply for themes of inequality or cohesion. Nomination and selection takes place twice per year. Next application deadline: May 1, 2016.

CPC STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

Demography Minor. The CPC offers a campus-wide minor in Demography that is open to PhD students in all social science graduate fields.
